

General K

General K is one of the founders and commanders of The Elite Command Force, he developed the ECF Strike Force. He heads the operations of Special Operations and Negotiations. He is one of the younger and more ambitious senior officers of the Elite Command Force to sit on the ECF Council of Commanders.

During the Old War a horrific fifteen-year sequel of an ancient war, General K was a mediator for the Elite Command Force. He was a brilliant negotiator and triumphant commander of secret operations. The Council of Commanders noticed his savvy and he was presented a seat on the Council. As his stock rose he gathered more clout for his secret operations branch. He became strong enough to infiltrate secret files and forge covert relationships with minimal notification to the Council of Commanders.

General K developed the mission to work with the phoenixes and other confidential partners attack the Dark Empire's Imperial Freighter in order to steal the hatchling. During the cloak and dagger attack of the imperial ship, General K met more of a challenge than what he thought. However, his mission was a complete success and now the Elite Command Force has tied themselves to the Phoenix Kingdom in an assault on the Dark Empire.

Flash

Lieutenant Craig “Flash” Bradley is one of the few members of The Elite Command Force Special Forces. Flash studies herbology and botany. He is often testing the magical effects of herbs and plants, on himself mostly. He has a great knowledge of natural elements and their magical effects. This has given him the ability to have magic defenses, without knowing magic.

Flash has proved himself worthy through his years in the military schooling system and his college career. He earned his degree in biology, and published his finding on natural elements and their effects. After his college years, he graduated as a junior officer in the Nebulon Armed forces. After the formation of the Elite Command Force, the Nebulon Forces were merge in to the Elite Command Force Delta System Division.

The Delta System ECF Division was looking for soldiers to train for the Special Forces and Lieutenant Bradley tried out for testing. It was during his training period with the Special Forces that his superior athletic talents were in full focus of the ECF superiors. He is very knowledgeable and quick witted. His athletic ability is how he got the nickname Flash at a younger age, so he prefers to be called by his nickname. He is always looking for a challenge and does not back down from anything.

Flash is a superior soldier he tries to help everyone he can. He does not like to see innocent people suffer, because of his traumatic childhood. He is always looking for his niche and knows that he is going to be part of something bigger than the ECF. Flash is not too open with his emotions, because he lost his parents at the age of four. The only person he confides in is his girlfriend, Rose, who is a medic for the Elite Command Force Delta Division.

General Charmichael

Alfred Charmichael is the one greatest man behind the formation of the Elite Command Force. He and his colleagues drew up the plans to form one united military society to patrol the galaxy. General Charmichael was the commander of the Galactic Command. He over saw all of the outer sectors and command posts of the galaxy. It was not until the Old War that many planetary resources and armed forces were needed in a concentrated area. The mass mistakes made in the calculations of forces and miscommunications between the power struggles of the commanders of the various forces cost several tens of thousands their lives.

After the massacre that was the Old War, General Charmichael called a summit with the biggest military forces in the galaxy. With all of the commanders of the Galactic Command, the Democratic Forces, Elite Planetary Guard, the Galactic Fleet and the Planetary Systems Alliance, The Elite Command Force was conceived. Over the course of years, the Elite Command Force has acquired more armed forces and financial backing. Many of the individual planets and systems joined and committed their forces to the Elite Command Force.

Now the Elite Command Force is the Galaxy's largest protective military patrol. Communication and coordination between the ECF Sectors is remarkably impressive. No such tragedy like the Old War has happened and several wars were prevented.

General Davis

General Davis was a commanding officer of special operations during the Old War, with the Elite Planetary Guard. He was a natural when it came to intelligence and high priority missions. General Davis' ways became the model standard for special operations training. He was elected by the Elite Planetary Guard to represent them to the Elite Command Force.

He currently holds one of five positions on the Elite Command Force Council of Commanders as the Commander of Military Intelligence and Training. General Davis set the high and rigorous standards to train and forge the best soldiers to serve the Elite Command Force.

He is openly vocal and upset with the loss of the ECF spies in the Dark Empire. He does not claim conspiracy, but he has strong thoughts of it. He said in the last security briefing of the Dark Empire invasion of the phoenix planet, that he could not believe being reckless by committing an assassination attempt lead to the discovery of the spies. General Davis thinks that new orders were giving against the ECF Espionage Code.

Admiral Smith

Admiral Smith is the Elite Command Force Fleet Commander one of five positions on the Elite Command Force Council of Commanders. She is responsible for organizing and coordinating the patrols and performances of the entire ECF fleet. She is intelligent and has a great record of maximum damage with minimum loss. Her naval and star ship battles are a stroke of genius. Admiral Smith is quick to admit the ECF fleet's deficiencies, but will do everything in her power to stop the threats that plague EFC patrol sectors.

Admiral Smith has been in many recent intelligence briefings dealing with the Dark Empire Imperial Armada. The news that she reports to the ECF Council of Commanders is not good, the Imperial Armada is the most formidable fleet in the galaxy. She knows and makes the Elite Command Force aware of the limited power they have against it and the threat the Imperial Armada poses.

General Constantine

General Constantine is the Commander of Military Operations. He is the highest uniform officer responsible for recruitment and maintenance of the Elite Command Force's troops and functions. General Constantine assigns all recruitment, organization, supply, equipment, training, service, mobilization, demobilization, administer and maintain forces and execute the forces combat orders.

He was the main administrator in consolidating and organizing the Galactic Command, the Democratic Forces, Elite Planetary Guard, the Galactic Fleet and the Planetary Systems Alliance into the Elite Command Force. General Constantine has been able to amass the planetary funds, weaponry and recruits to keep the Elite Command Force strong and growing. He personally works with his appointed staff to maintain the functions off all officers and soldiers in all departments of the Elite Command Force to the finest detail.
